

The 2014 Equitas Play it Fair! Award

On November 20th, Equitas will celebrate National Child Day by giving out its annual Play it Fair! award to an individual or team who has shown leadership and creativity in promoting children's rights and participation in their community through Play it Fair!

You can recognize a Play it Fair! champion(s) in your community by nominating an individual or team for the Play it Fair! award.

Nomination Deadline Wednesday October 15th, 2014

Send completed nomination forms to Laura Butler, Program Officer Canada at lbutler@equitas.org

Please feel free to attach supporting documents, photographs or videos!

Please note that the award recipient will be announced on November 20th, the award will be presented to the recipient at a later date.

2014 Equitas Play it Fair! award nomination form

I hereby nominate (insert name of individual or team) _____ for the 2014 Play it Fair! award.

Community organization / Municipality / School that the individual or team works for: _____

My name and relation to the nominee: _____

1: Tell us how the nominee is promoting children's rights and participation using Play it Fair! in the following ways:

- A) Among the children they work with
- B) In their organization and among staff:
- C) In their community:

2: Tell us how the nominee is using Play it Fair! in new, fun or creative ways:

3: If you had to describe the nominee and their commitment to children's participation and rights in one sentence, what would that sentence say?

4: How long has the individual or team been using Play It Fair!

For more information, please contact Laura Butler at lbutler@equitas.org